

Early Morning Assault In Tillsonburg

Written by Megan
Saturday, 17 June 2017 08:53

An early morning physical assault has sent one male to hospital. OPP responded to the area of Broadway and Venision Street in Tillsonburg where a male was in medical distress.

The victim was taken to hospital and his medical condition has been upgraded to non life threatening. The area was closed for a short while but has since been re-opened.

There are no concerns for public safety.

Police are continuing to investigate and more information will be made public when available.

(Meghan Spotswood)